

Round Two Innovation Fund project in action

How cool is the new playground artwork at Kendall Public School?

Funded by the Healthy Communities Mid North Coast Innovation Fund, the playground artwork, has created a new outdoor learning space for the school. The new attraction combines physical activity and learning with children regularly seen playing on the artwork during classroom activities, recess and lunch.

Students were actively involved in the planning stages of this project, and they look very happy with the results.

New playground artwork promoting physical activity and learning

Kendall Public School

Healthy Communities
Mid North Coast